Nestled in the picturesque town of Canton, North Carolina, this charming 1975 brick ranch offers a blend of classic and modern convenience. Boasting views of the surrounding mountains and an array of modified accessibility features. This single-story ranch-style residence was meticulously remodeled in 2016. The front porch welcomes you with a sense of warmth, making it an ideal spot to enjoy the serene mountain views. Large windows flood the living spaces with natural light but also creates a seamless connection between the indoors and the natural beauty outdoors. The home's layout is thoughtfully designed with accessibility in mind, making it suitable for individuals with mobility challenges. It features wider hallways and doorways, as well as an open floor plan that allows for easy movement.
